

POLS 2710/WGST2710X Theories of Justice
Spring 2024

Catalog Description

Course Description

•
•

- To prepare for class, I suggest that you outline the author's argument
- Taking notes in class. What kind of notes is it helpful to take in a discussion class?_
- Always bring a copy (paper or electronic) copy of the assigned text(s) to class
- serve as an "expert" discussant
- pop quizzes

Civility.

-
- Be curious about what we read and seek to understand the author's argument
  - Show respect to the voices of authors and also to members of our class; suspend judgment.

Communication

---

---

---

Electronics.

self evaluation and a course evaluation

The following university policy statements can be found at the end of this syllabus:

-
-
-
-
-
-

-

https://libguides.slu.edu/er.php?course\_id=105309 . However, you can reach the list by looking up the course number or instructor.

Part I. What are theories of justice for?

---

Mar 5-6

Disability Services, and Academic Coaching
Student Success Center and University Writing Services

---