The Marcella Cohen Scholarship

The Home Health Care Foundation has designated a scholarship in honor of Marcella Cohen, the first CEO of Visiting Nurse Association of Greater St. Louis.

The Charles How Wallace Scholarship

The Home Health Care Foundation has designated a scholarship in honor of Charles How Wallace. Mr. Wallace retired in 2006 as Chairman of the Home Health Care Foundation after providing 37 years of service to the VNA Foundation. Mr. Wallace was one of three VNA officials who founded the VNA Foundation in 1975. In 1993, the VNA Foundation changed its name to the Home Health Care Foundation, and it continues to support its original purpose of annually funding nursing scholarships to the local nursing schools in St. Louis.

The Teddi Johnson Scholarship

Ms. Johnson served on the Home Health Care Foundation Board for more than ten years, and was actively involved in the development and administration of the Foundation's scholarship programs. Her administrative contributions to the Foundation, in providing educational and professional development opportunities for nursing, physical therapy, and occupational therapy students in the St. Louis area.

Ms. Johnson worked at the Visiting Nurse Association of Greater St. Louis for more than 33 years as a staff nurse, Aide Supervisor, Nursing Supervisor, and District Manager, and retired as Vice President of Clinical Services, having served in that position for 13 years. She had previously worked as Head Nurse at a major hospital in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson served on the American Diabetes Association Board for many years, and was a City Council Member of the City of St. Louis, served on a committee to help bring the old St. Louis City Children's Hospital, and has participated in various community activities. Additionally, she served on a number of local agency advisory committees and supported various community health care careers in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson graduated from the Levensworth Hospital School of Nursing in 1959, studying for her Bachelor's degree, and was one of the first African-Americans to be admitted to the program. She later studied at Saint Louis University and earned her Master's degree in Management classes at Meramec Community College, St. Louis.
