

Revised response from Natalie L. Johnson

► Documentation of mission or outcomes, and assessment findings including research presently in progress that may include experience submitted by department chairpersons or designated focused on implementation and ► Annual programmatic assessment reports and an account of assessment methods used to monitor student learning. In this progress report the following information is provided: